

PURSUIING YOUR DEGREE AND IN NEED OF FUNDING SUPPORT?
CHECK OUT THE IAFC FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIPS
APPLICATIONS NOW AVAILABLE
DEADLINE OF JUNE 1, 2014

The International Association of Fire Chiefs Foundation is accepting applications for its educational scholarships from qualified first responders. The deadline is June 1, 2014.

Scholarships provided by the IAFC Foundation help improve the fire service by helping first responders advance their college level educations so that they are better prepared to face the ever increasing and complex challenges of today's fire service.

Available 2014 scholarships include:

Motorola Future Leaders Scholarship Awards
Chief Charles "Chet" Henry Memorial Scholarship Award
Garry L. Briese Scholarship Award
The Heather Westphal Memorial Scholarship Award
IAFC Federal Military Section Award
John M. Buckman, III Award
Company Officer Leadership Symposium (COLS) Scholarship
Fire Explorers (14-20 years of age)

Any person who is an active member with a minimum of three (3) years as a Volunteer, two (2) years Paid, or a combination of Paid and Volunteer of three (3) years with a State, County, Provincial, Municipal, community, industrial, or Federal fire department is eligible to apply.

The IAFC Foundation is grateful to the Motorola Solutions Foundation, Glatfelter Insurance Group/VFIS and the many other fire service related companies and individuals who demonstrate their support of first responder education by donating to the IAFC Foundation.

The scholarship application form can be found at www.iafcf.org
